JSM Staff Pick

What are our staff members' favorite items in the Museum? Each edition, we'll feature one special pick and the story behind why it stands out. Every visitor has a favorite. What will yours be?

"I've always loved grandfather clocks. When I first started working here, the one in the Office Gallery took my breath away – its gorgeous hand-carved mahogany, beveled glass, and solid brass and gold plating. Then I discovered that the clock was an award that Jimmy received in 1983. One not for film, but for being a good man. It's a beautiful example of care and craftsmanship. As such, it's my favorite item in the museum and has been since my first day – six years ago."

– Ruth Barkey, Business Manager

"There is something truly special about stepping into the Museum. One of the greatest rewards is watching visitors discover the remarkable life and legacy of Jimmy Stewart—and hearing from others who share personal stories related to Jimmy. Some tell us how Jimmy's films shaped their lives, while others share memories of meeting him or prized possessions Jimmy autographed. But the most powerful moments come as guests leave. We often hear words like "inspired", "uplifted", and "hopeful". That is the magic of this place. You don't simply learn about Jimmy Stewart here—you discover why his story continues to inspire generations. Come experience it for yourself."
